

E ①
B ②
G ③
D ④
A ⑤
E ⑥

A guitar fretboard diagram for an E major chord. The strings are labeled E (1), B (2), G (3), D (4), A (5), and E (6) from top to bottom. Fret markers are present at frets 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Fingering dots are placed on the 2nd fret of the G string (3), the 2nd fret of the D string (4), the 2nd fret of the A string (5), and the 1st fret of the E string (6). The B and high E strings are open.

E ①
B ②
G ③
D ④
A ⑤
E ⑥

A guitar fretboard diagram for an E major chord. The strings are labeled E (1), B (2), G (3), D (4), A (5), and E (6) from top to bottom. Fret markers are present at frets 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Fingering dots are placed on the 2nd fret of the G string (3), the 2nd fret of the D string (4), the 2nd fret of the A string (5), and the 1st fret of the E string (6). The B and high E strings are open.

E ①
B ②
G ③
D ④
A ⑤
E ⑥

A guitar fretboard diagram for an E major chord. The strings are labeled E (1), B (2), G (3), D (4), A (5), and E (6) from top to bottom. Fret markers are present at frets 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Fingering dots are placed on the 2nd fret of the G string (3), the 2nd fret of the D string (4), the 2nd fret of the A string (5), and the 1st fret of the E string (6). The B and high E strings are open.

E ①
B ②
G ③
D ④
A ⑤
E ⑥

A guitar fretboard diagram for an E major chord. The strings are labeled E (1), B (2), G (3), D (4), A (5), and E (6) from top to bottom. Fret markers are present at frets 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Fingering dots are placed on the 2nd fret of the G string (3), the 2nd fret of the D string (4), the 2nd fret of the A string (5), and the 1st fret of the E string (6). The B and high E strings are open.

E ①
B ②
G ③
D ④
A ⑤
E ⑥

A guitar fretboard diagram for an E major chord. The strings are labeled E (1), B (2), G (3), D (4), A (5), and E (6) from top to bottom. Fret markers are present at frets 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Fingering dots are placed on the 2nd fret of the G string (3), the 2nd fret of the D string (4), the 2nd fret of the A string (5), and the 1st fret of the E string (6). The B and high E strings are open.

E ①
B ②
G ③
D ④
A ⑤
E ⑥

A guitar fretboard diagram for an E major chord. The strings are labeled E (1), B (2), G (3), D (4), A (5), and E (6) from top to bottom. Fret markers are present at frets 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Fingering dots are placed on the 2nd fret of the G string (3), the 2nd fret of the D string (4), the 2nd fret of the A string (5), and the 1st fret of the E string (6). The B and high E strings are open.

E ①
B ②
G ③
D ④
A ⑤
E ⑥

A guitar fretboard diagram for an E major chord. The strings are labeled E (1), B (2), G (3), D (4), A (5), and E (6) from top to bottom. Fret markers are present at frets 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Fingering dots are placed on the 2nd fret of the G string (3), the 2nd fret of the D string (4), the 2nd fret of the A string (5), and the 1st fret of the E string (6). The B and high E strings are open.